David Austen, Crackers, 2007

Thursday 17 February, 7pm, Tickets £3 (Available from the Front Desk)

DOUBLE BILL

DAVID AUSTEN FILMS:
SMOKING MOON,
MAN SMOKING
& CRACKERS

(Contains explicit language)

Dir. David Austen, Smoking Moon, 2006,
13 mins; Man Smoking, 2008, 5 mins;
Crackers, 2007, 38 mins

This special screening, staged in conjunction with the exhibition End of Love, will show David Austen's three earlier films. Two short films will be followed by Crackers, a dark psycho-sexual drama set in an abandoned Regency house in Hove; starring actors Toby Kebbell and David Leon.

TRAPEZE (U)

Dir. Carol Reed, US, 1956, 105 mins

Trapeze is a colourful circus film starring Burt Lancaster, Tony Curtis and Gina Lollobrigida, following the exploits on and off the wire of its triple act.

Former star trapeze aerialist Mike (Lancaster) sees great promise in his protégé Tino (Curtis), believing he is capable of matching his feat, the dangerous triple somersault. Tensions arise with the arrival of the third member of their act, Lola (Lollobrigida) who seduces Tino though really has her heart set on Mike, sparking the development of a complicated love triangle.
